| Defendants. | ORDER DISMISSING CASES |

Plaintiff, a federal prisoner proceeding pro se, filed the 13 civil actions listed above against a variety of defendants. A federal court must conduct a preliminary screening in any case in which a prisoner seeks redress from a governmental entity or officer or employee of a governmental entity. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). In its review, the court must identify any cognizable claims and dismiss any claims that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim upon which relief may be granted or seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. See id. § 1915A(b)(1),(2). Pro se pleadings must, however, be liberally construed. See Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep't, 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988).

In an order filed January 2, 2008, the Court dismissed 22 prior cases filed by plaintiff because they were frivolous. The Court further noted:

Within the past two months, plaintiff has sent to this court approximately 160 different civil complaints setting forth similarly improbable, if not impossible, allegations and frivolous claims against a litany of defendants. [1] Plaintiff has also filed frivolous cases in other federal district courts, prompting one United States District Judge to make the following finding about plaintiff's filings:

G:\PRO-SE\MJJ\CR.08\riches71.dsm.wpd

It is not clear whether these outlandish pleadings are products of actual mental illness or simply a hobby akin to short story writing. Whatever their origin, and though they are amusing to the average reader, they do nothing more than clog the machinery of justice, interfering with the court's ability to address the needs of the genuinely aggrieved. It is time for them to stop.

Consequently, the Court restricted plaintiff from filing any civil complaints in this Court without payment of the full statutory filing fee.

The complaints in the above-listed cases must be dismissed because they set forth claims and allegations that are clearly irrational, baseless or frivolous, including, inter alia, claims that certain authors wrote books that fail "to talk about [plaintiff's] civil rights," that the professional football player Ben Roethlisberger is a "board member of the Federal sentencing commission;" that various Hollywood actors have "made" plaintiff commit crimes, are conspiring to keep him in solitary confinement, have "told" the Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court to deny his appeal, and will not allow plaintiff to watch movies; that managers of professional baseball teams are "managing [plaintiff's] torture;" that Dennis Quattrone is "laughing" at him. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a); 1915(e)(2); see Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25, 32 (1992). In addition, plaintiff's claims are brought under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against defendants who are not state actors. See West v. Atkins, 487 U.S. 42, 48 (1988). Lastly, plaintiff has not paid the filing fee in connection with these cases, as required by the January 2, 2008 order.

Accordingly, the above-listed cases are hereby DISMISSED, and the Clerk shall close the files.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: 1 23 2 20 8

MARTIN J. JENKINS/ United States District Judge

¹It has since become clear that the number of cases received from plaintiff is closer to 300.
